7. A candidate must be either—

- (i) a citizen of India, or
- (ii) a subject of Sikkim, or
- (iii) a person who has migrated from areas which now form Pakistan or from the unliberated areas of Jammu and Kashmir, with the intention of permanently settling in India, or
- (iv) a subject of Nepal or of a Portuguese or a former French Possession in India.

Note 1—The appointment of candidates in categories (iii) and (iv) above will be subject to the issue of certificates of eligibility in their favour by the Government of India. Certificates of eligibility will not, however, be necessary in the case of candidates belonging to any one of the following categories:—

- (i) Persons who migrated to India from Pakistan before the 19th July 1948, and have ordinarily been residing in India since then.
- (ii) Persons who migrated to India from Pakistan after the 18th July 1948, but before the 30th September 1948, and got themselves registered as citizens within the time allowed.
- (iii) Non-citizens who entered service under the Government of India before the commencement of the Constitution, viz. 26th January 1950, and who have continued in such service since then. Any such person who re-entered or may re-enter such service with break after the 26th January 1950, will, however, require certificate of eligibility in the usual way.

Note 2—A candidate in whose case a certificate of eligibility is necessary may be admitted to the examination and he may also be provisionally appointed subject to the necessary certificate being eventually issued in his favour by Government.

8. (i) A candidate for the examination must have attained the age of 20 years and must not have attained the age of 30 years on 26th February 1955.

(ii) If a candidate is already employed under the Government of India or in the States or in Statutory Bodies, a concession in age up to a maximum of three years will be given, i.e., he can compete up to the age of 33 years, provided he is in such service continuously from a date prior to his attaining the age of 30 years, further provided that his application is recommended by his Department.

Note—The upper age limits prescribed above are relaxable (i) up to a maximum of three years if the candidate is a bona fide displaced person from Pakistan or from the unliberated areas of Jammu and Kashmir; and (ii) up to a maximum of five years if a candidate belongs to Chandernagore and has been receiving his education through the medium of French.

Save as provided above, the age limits prescribed can in no case be relaxed.

9. A candidate must satisfy the Commission that his character is such as to make him suitable for appointment to the Service.

10. No male candidate who has more than one wife living shall be eligible for appointment on the results of this competitive examination unless the Government of India after being satisfied that there are special grounds for doing so, exempt any male candidate from the operation of this rule.

11. (a) A candidate must hold a degree of one of the Universities enumerated in Appendix I.

(b) In exceptional cases, the Union Public Service Commission may treat a candidate who has not the above qualification, as a qualified candidate provided that he is recommended by the Central or State Government and has passed an examination, conducted by other institutions, the standard of which, in the opinion of the Commission, justifies his admission to the examination.

(c) Candidates who are otherwise qualified but who have taken degrees from foreign Universities which are not included in Appendix I may also apply and may be admitted to the examination at the discretion of the Commission.

Note—Candidates who have appeared at an examination the passing of which would render them eligible to appear at this examination may apply for admission to the examination. Candidates who intend to appear at such a qualifying examination may also apply, provided the qualifying examination is completed before the commencement of this examination. The applications of such candidates will be accepted provisionally and they will be required to furnish proof of having passed the examination as soon as possible and in any case not later than one month after the commencement of this examination.

12. A candidate must be in good mental and bodily health and free from any physical defect, likely to interfere with the efficient discharge of his duties as an officer of the Service. A candidate, who after such medical examination, as may be prescribed by the competent authority, is found not to satisfy these requirements, will not be appointed. Only such candidates as are likely to be considered for appointment will be medically examined.

13. The decision of the Commission as to the eligibility or otherwise of a candidate for admission to the examination shall be final.

14. No candidate will be admitted to the examination unless he holds a certificate of admission from the Commission.

15. A candidate found guilty of impersonation, or of submitting fabricated documents, or documents which have been tampered with, or of making statements which are incorrect or false, or suppressing material information, or of using or attempting to use unfair means in the examination hall or otherwise resorting to any other irregular or improper means for obtaining admission to the examination may, in addition to rendering himself liable to a criminal prosecution, be debarred, either permanently or for a specified period:—

- (a) by the Commission from admission to any examination or appearance at any interview held by the Commission for selection of candidates; and
- (b) by the Central Government from employment under the Government.

16. No recommendations except those required in the application form will be taken into consideration. Any attempt on the part of a candidate to obtain support for his candidature by any means may disqualify him for admission.

17. Candidates must pay the fee prescribed in Appendix II. No claim for a refund of this fee will ordinarily be entertained except to the extent stated in that Appendix, nor can it be held in reserve for any other examination or selection.

18. The examination for appointment under these rules shall be conducted by the Commission in the manner prescribed in the regulations which form Appendix III to these rules.

19. After the examination, the Commission shall make a list of the candidates, in order of their merit, as disclosed by the aggregate marks finally awarded to each candidate and in that order such candidates up to the number of vacancies announced above, as are found by the Commission to be qualified and are considered by the Government to be suitable in all respects, shall be appointed.

Note—Success in the examination confers no right to appointment, unless Government are satisfied, after such enquiry as may be considered necessary, that the candidate is suitable in all respects for appointment to the Service.

20. Appointment will be made on probation for a period of one year, during which the probationer will undergo training in the Secretariat Training School for a period of three months (which may be extended if considered necessary) and practical training in the Secretariat and Attached Offices for a period of nine months.

21. On the successful completion of probation, the candidate will be absorbed in Grade IV of the Central Secretariat Service.

During the period of training, probationers will receive a fixed pay of Rs. 100/- with usual allowances and after that they will be brought on to the scale of Assistant, viz., Rs. 160—10—300—EB—15—450.

Candidates will be required to pass a test in typewriting (the minimum speed required will be 30 words a minute) to be conducted by the Commission before they are allowed to draw their second increment.
